Petersburg, Va., June 26.—For twelve inches Richmond and Petersburg battled vigorously for the game played here this afternoon, and the game should have resulted in a tie but for some deciding on the part of the home team in the twelfth inning, when Robt. made his hit to left center, counting two runs, and the game was over.
Each team had a single hit in the twelfth inning, but it was the home team's hit that counted.

Richmond, June 26.—The Giants took both ends of the double-header this afternoon, the first by the score of 8 to 4, and the second, 19 to 4. The Giants batted all the Boston pitchers hard and showed up finely in base running, making the most of every opportunity, and completely outclassing the locals.

Philadelphia, June 26.—The Washington club this afternoon forfeited the first game of a double-header with the Philadelphia Athletics, and the latter club was declared the winner by the score of 9 to 0. The Athletics were at bat in the second half of the fourth inning and were leading by the score of 2 to 0. Umpire Chitt began calling "balls" on Engel, who was pitching for Washington, on account of his illegal pitching, having warned him several times. Manager Griffith protested and called his team off the field, and immediately pulled his watch. At the expiration of ten minutes the Washington team refused to take their places in the field, and Chitt forfeited the game to the Athletics.

After Umpire Chitt forfeited the game the Washington players lined up and applied to the referee and then walked to their bench.
Forfeiting a game carries with it a $1,000 fine, which must be paid within twenty-four hours or the franchise is declared void.
The Athletics won the second game, 6 to 5, in ten innings. Homerun Baker lined out two homers with a man on base, and scored in scoring a fifth run with a sacrifice fly.

Washington used four pitchers—Ayers, Hendrix, McBridge, Engel, and Shawkey pitched good ball up until the eighth, Washington tied the score in the ninth, and Hendrix pitched the tenth inning and were leading by the score
